

Creating Personal Quality Benchmarks

Build skills, capability and create cultures of excellence.

Overview

Competing with others has always been a package deal in today's hyper competitive environment. But the true multipliers have their standards to establish, their own benchmarks to be challenged. Here's a workshop that helps you make a better refreshed version of yourself.

Your takeaways

1. Define what Excellence Means for You and Your Stakeholders
2. Identify inhibiting behavioral patterns
3. Instilling peak performing mindsets and beliefs
4. Self-Reflection Tool
5. Propel Your Drive for Excellence and Learning

Learning Outcomes

This workshop intends to help learners discover their own levels of performance, instill patterns of habits, thinking and behaviours that help peak one's performance and cultivate a neural circuitry that is curious, driven and has a never-ending quest to excel.
