

Five Habits of Highly Nurturing Strengths Based Leaders / Change Agents

Learn Strengths Based Leadership.

Overview

You are not good enough. Why did you do this? And many similar sound bytes always stemmed from a power position to correct a person; blame; punish; demean. Execute those who fail to execute the plan. But till when? What if we were to stop, reflect and rethink how could I develop this person and equip and empower her/him instead of jumping to correct her/him. And whose need am I meeting? Her/his or Mine? Well here's a workshop capsule based on the principles of Positive Psychology to help managers be Nurturers

Learning Outcomes

This workshop intends to help learners appreciate the needs for individual strengths-based development. It centers around 5 key principles with each principle having an underlying mindset and some pre-requisites. It gives them an opportunity to practice these principles and gather feedforward for their learnings.

Your takeaways

1. Appreciation of Strengths based Development
2. Power Positions and Plays
3. The 5 Key principles and mindsets
4. The Gardener's Self Evaluation
5. Practicing Nurturing Conversations
6. Feeding It Forward

Program Details

- 90 + 90 mins
- Pre and Post work essential
- Delivered by expert facilitators
- Open to all
- English language only

